FARGO'S FAMOUS ROSES

STRONG, STURDY,
18 to 24 inch Field Grown Plants

In homes near and far, the name of FARGO has, for many years, stood as a synonym for high Rose satisfaction. The Fargo name is today well known the country over. Be SURE to plant Fargo's Famous Roses. The standard size of our Roses, as offered in this catalog, is of an average height of 18 to 24 inches, (unless cut back before shipping). They are fine, strong, sturdy, heavy-rooted plants; the first grade from the fields, and give an abundance of rose satisfaction. Roses are one of the MANY fine things you will find described and illustrated in this, our 1928 Spring Catalog. Read every page; preserve it for frequent future reference.

FARGO'S FAMOUS ROSES ARE PRIZE WINNING ROSES.

Hopewell, Va., May 27, 1926.

"I want to tell you about my Roses I bought from you in 1925 and 1926. My Rose garden is quite a sensation. At the Appomattox Garden Club Flower Show, May 21st, I won two gold seals, three blue stars and one red star, scoring twenty points on Roses alone, and coming within six points of the sweepstakes prize, and the highest score made, which was won on nearly every kind of flower in bloom at the time.

From my Kaiserin Augusta Victoria received from you March 8, 1926, one bud won the gold seal for being the best white shown. I think this is a remarkable showing from a Rose that was only planted in March; a little over two months ago. I am enclosing a clipping reporting the show.

Yours very truly,

C. M. TAYLOR.

Clipping from Richmond, Va., Times-Dispatch, Mon. May 24th.

In part it says: Mr. Taylor's exhibit, a beautiful collection of Roses, was declared by the judges to be one of the finest of the kind seen."

"At a Flower Show here a few weeks ago I won first and second prizes with Roses purchased from you. First prize for Columbia and second prize for Ophelia."

Mrs. Harvey Shaw, Conshocken, Pa.

FARGO'S HYBRID PERPETUAL ROSES

White American Beauty, Frau Karl Rruschki, or Snow Queen

Six of the immense blooms filling a reed flower basket.

This class of Roses, known as "June Bloomers" are stronger, sturdier growers than the Hybrid Teas or "Monthly" Roses, producing an immense number of superbly gorgeous blooms during the month of June.

The average height of our stock of Hybrid Perpetuals is 24 to 36 inches.

WHITE AMERICAN BEAUTY. It is hard to say too much in favor of this glorious Rose, and although classed as a June bloomer, it frequently blooms out of its season, as well as in June. The pure white flowers are immense in size, waxy in texture, and something of their desirability may be judged from our photograph of six of these great Roses filling a willow Flower Basket.

AMERICAN BEAUTY. Very large carmine-cerise flowers, and beautiful heavy foliage. Probably the most famous rose in it's class; favorably known to all flower lovers.

PAUL NEYRON. Deep rose-pink; flowers of immense size. Claimed by many to be the largest Rose in existence.

ULRICH BRUNNER. Cherry-red in color. Very large flowers and of fine form. A good Rose.

GEN. JACQUEMINOT. Also known as the Jack Rose. Crimson-scarlet; large, full and very fragrant.

BLACK PRINCE. Large, full globular. Deep crimson in color; so much so as to be classed as "black."

ANY OF THE ABOVE, $1. EACH; 6 FOR $5.; DOZEN, $10.

LARGE FLOWERING HARDY CLIMBERS

FOR PORCH COLUMNS, PERGOLAS, TRELLIS, ETC.

Average Height 18 to 24 Inches.

These Roses require no pruning in the Spring except the taking out of old or dead wood or pruning back to the desired shape or form, but a severe pruning of old wood in July after they have flowered, will encourage a vigorous growth and insure an abundance of bloom the following season.

"I want you to know how exceedingly well pleased we all are with the orders delivered to us last; Dahlias, Gladioli, Roses, etc. Never had such large Roses in my garden before."
B. Guckenheimer, The G. Music Studios, West Roxbury, Mass.

Climbing American Beauty

CL. AMERICAN BEAUTY. Fragrant rosy-crimson of strong growing habit. Thrives and blooms almost anywhere. Great bloomer on long stems; flowers four inches across.

SILVER MOON. Beautiful half-double flowers, four inches or more across, color pure white with a mass of golden stamens at the center. Unlike other Roses; cup shaped clematis-like flower.

PAUL'S SCARLET CLIMBER. The most vivid scarlet climber in existence. Flowers of good size, borne in clusters. Very popular, and much admired everywhere. No mistake is made in planting this grand Rose.

SHOWER OF GOLD. Deep golden yellow with orange shading. Very double and lasting.

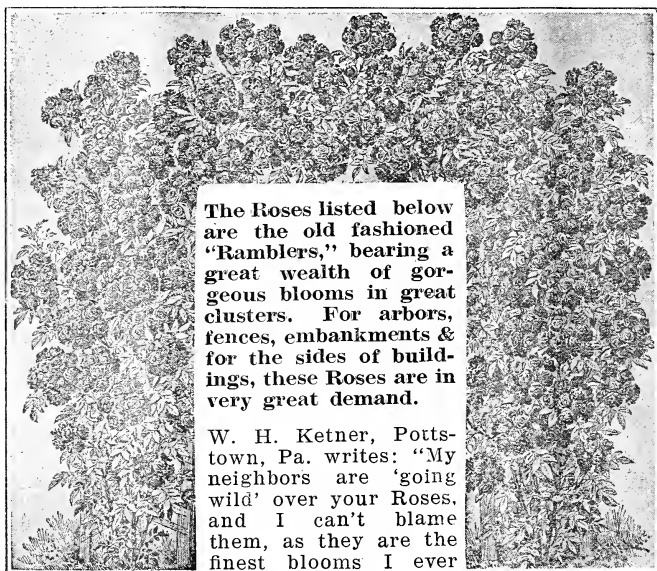

AMERICAN PILLAR. Large apple-blossom pink with a clear white eye and a cluster of golden stamens at the center. Large flowers borne in great clusters and a plant in full bloom is a sight not soon to be forgotten.

DR. WALTER VAN FLEET. Delicate flesh pink deepening to rosy flesh at the center. Petals beautifully undulated and cupped.

"Enclosed find check for $14.04, for which I call a 'community order.' I have bought quite a number of Roses from you for the past few seasons, and it seems the Roses speak for themselves."—Mrs. Charles A. Stober, Reading Heights, Pa.

ANY OF THE ABOVE, $1. EACH; 6 FOR $5.; DOZEN, $10.

FARGO'S HARDY RAMBLER ROSES

The Roses listed below are the old fashioned "Ramblers," bearing a great wealth of gorgeous blooms in great clusters. For arbors, fences, embankments & for the sides of buildings, these Roses are in very great demand.

W. H. Ketner, Pottstown, Pa. writes: "My neighbors are 'going wild' over your Roses, and I can't blame them, as they are the finest blooms I ever owned."

LADY GAY—Climbing Rose. A new variety of remarkable vigorous growth, with double flowers of a delicate pink.

HIAWATHA—Among hardy Climbing Roses none surpass the Hiawatha. Each Summer the plants are smothered with great blooms, often fifty or more flowers to a cluster. The color is a glowing ruby-carmine, with clear white at base of petals and a mass of golden stamens at the center. This rose has been a sight worth seeing in bloom on the grounds of the Dept. of Agriculture at Washington.

WHITE DOROTHY PERKINS—Same as Dorothy except color clear white. Fills a long felt want for a Hardy White Climbing Rose.

EXCELSA. Also called the Red Dorothy Perkins. Intense deep crimson hardy white climber.

ANY OF THE ABOVE, $1. EACH; 6 FOR $5.; DOZEN, $10.

Hugonis.

HUGONIS. (illustrated) This Rose is not a climber, but a wonderful recent introduction from China, growing to a height and breadth of about six feet, and each graceful spray clustered full of single bright golden-yellow Roses so that the plant becomes a veritable "sheet of gold" and very early in spring before the other Roses bloom. The foliage makes an attractive display at all seasons. Each $1.00.

THREE VERY REMARKABLE GLADIOLI

Those who have not grown the newer types of Gladioli have not yet really tasted the full joys of Gladioli growing. Gaze upon the little Miss here pictured. Note the yardstick in her right hand; the top of it just a few inches above her fingers, and then note the comparative size of the tall spikes of Evelyn Kirtland Gladioli she is admiring. She appears enraptured at the size and beauty of the lovely blooms, and they are her namesake.

EVELYN KIRTLAND

Probably no more charmingly beautiful Gladioli has been evolved than this popular variety, which is now priced within the reach of all. The wonderful blending of pink tints is marvelous, and really hard indeed to adequately describe. We say this however; you will make no mistake if you plant this variety liberally, and you will make a BIG mistake if you DON'T. For garden display and for bouquets you will find them hard to beat, and here is a variety that will meet with a ready sale.

Gladioli like sun and a rich soil. Plant the bulbs four inches apart and three inches deep (6 inches deep if the soil is light and sandy.) Keep free from weeds and well hoed. If you plant some of the bulbs every ten days from middle of April to July 10th, you can have them in bloom from July to October. Largest bulbs are suited only for forcing under glass, but even quite small bulbs, those of $\frac{1}{2}$ in. or even less, will bloom the first year planted in the garden. Above Collections consist of bulbs grading 1 to $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter except "Popular Collection" which grades $\frac{3}{4}$ to 1 inch.

English Hybrid DWARF Bedding Dahlias

Something really unique in Dahlias, and grown as readily and as easily from seed as from tubers, and will bloom abundantly the very first year from seed; germinating as easily as zinnias, asters, petunias or other quick growing annuals. Each plant quickly develops into a bouquet in itself. The plants are dwarf in their habit of growth; attaining a height of about 18 inches, and bearing myriads of bright showy single flowers about 3 inches across. Our first experience with this dwarf type of Dahlia, which has become so very popular in England and on the Continent, was in the spring of 1926. We grew a test plot from seed and had 102 plants. These plants produced in the neighborhood of twenty thousand bright flowers in twelve different colors and were in continuous and gorgeous bloom from midsummer until stopped by frosts in late fall.

They were a colorful and gorgeous sight at all times.

For beds and borders the Dahlias easily take the place of geraniums, they are useful for bouquets, and a pleasing display is easily made by lifting an entire plant in bloom and setting it in a basket or jardiniere, and can be used not only for house and porch decoration, but as excellent, appropriate and inexpensive gifts.

For those of our patrons who prefer tubers; we can supply these in mixture at 3 for 60 cents. Dozen—$2. Green plants from 2 1/4 inch pots at the same price, and these will be sent if our stock of tubers becomes exhausted. Seed offered in liberal size packets at 50 cents per packet.

Give these English Hybrid Dwarf Dahlias a place in your garden this year. If you have a hardy border, use some of them for color effect; you will find them very pleasing.

CALIFORNIA PRIVET FOR HEDGES

Generally speaking, there is nothing so satisfactory for a Hedge as California Privet. In the first place, the first cost is the only cost, while a fence constructed of wood or metal is a continual expense for upkeep and repairs, and unsightly in most positions, in the bargain, while a good Hedge is "A Thing of Beauty and a Joy Forever."

Privet is easily trimmed, and needs almost no other attention. You can have a low hedge or a tall one; a plain type or a fancy and elaborate design, just as your fancy and skill may dictate.

A Privet Hedge will certainly add dollars to the appearance and value of your home.

Buying your Privet of us, you can expect strong, uniform, well rooted plants, 12 to 18 or more inches tall, all at a reasonable figure. Set out the plants in a double row, with the plants a foot apart. By starting the second row six inches below the starting point of the first row, a front view shows one plant for each half-foot of Hedge and insures a thick dense growth. The price of our California Privet is $5.00 for each 100 plants, shipped by express.

BARBERRY HEDGE

Berberis Thunbergii. This Hedge requires but little attention, and is a thing of grace, charm and beauty always. Two shades to the foliage; the old a dark green and the new growth in spring a beautiful light green. In the fall a wealth of bright red berries that stay on the plants nearly all winter makes the planting doubly attractive. Plants 12 to 15 inches tall. Should be planted one foot apart in a single row. Each 30 cents; 25—$3.50; 100—$12.

Fragrant Lilacs

DOUBLE FLOWERING LILACS

The old fashioned Lilacs, with their pleasing fragrance, were prime favorites for many years, but the newer named sorts with double flowers far exceed the old types in worth and beauty. The individual flowers of the double sorts, resembling miniature tuberoses, carried by the plants in immense trusses, are delicately perfumed. The fine, well branched stock we offer stands 1½ to 2 feet in height. The varieties are as follows: Charles Joly, dark violet purple; Mme. Casimer Perier, a free blooming white, Michael Buchner, pale lilac, and President Grevy, one of the best blue shades. Lilacs are particularly effective when planted in groups or masses, and we will send the four above named sorts all for only $5. Single specimens at $2 each.

For those who may wish to purchase the old fashioned sorts, with single purple lilac flowers, we offer nice plants, same size as above, at 75 cents each. 3 for $2.

It is one of the very best, sturdy and rapid climbers that we have, and during the month of May it becomes loaded with a wealth of enormous trusses of gorgeous bloom. It grows easily anywhere, but when first planted it is advisable to feed it well in order to give it a vigorous start. 2-yr. plants 75 cents each or 3 for $2.00.

HARDY CINNAMON FERNS FOR OUT-DOOR PLANTING

For shady or partially shaded locations these Ferns are ideal, and have the added advantage of being inexpensive. In groves, parks and private gardens they usually do well, and they are very useful for planting along house foundations and in corners that are too shady for other plants. These ferns are not suited for pots indoors as, in the Fall, the leaves ripen off and the plants remain dormant for the Winter. They are for outdoor planting only. Each—35 cents. Dozen—$3.50.

HARDY JAPANESE AZALEAS

Undoubtedly, at some time, you have seen these gorgeous plants in full bloom, massed in front of porch, or foundation walls, or banked in front of a planting of evergreens. In May the plants are a veritable sheet of bloom, bright and colorful in the extreme, the foliage almost entirely hidden by the bright, gay flowers.

Probably the most popular of these is Hinodigiri, a bright, glowing fiery red. The plants are of the broad-leaved evergreen type, grow to a height of about three feet, and make attractive plants at all times, but particularly in the spring, when in full bloom; then they are a sight before which one pauses to drink in the rare beauty, charm and loveliness of the display. If you wish something bright and showy, and yet in good taste, plant the Hardy Japanese Azalea Hinodigiri, setting the plants about two feet apart, and you will eventually have a display worth traveling a great way to see. Nice young plants, balled and burlaped, already in bud and having a spread of six to eight inches at Each $2.00. Dozen—$20.00.

JAPANESE KURUME AZALEAS FOR POTS

This type is not hardy north of Washington but is very useful anywhere for pot culture, the plants beginning to bloom while yet very small. They come in a number of choice colors, and we offer small plants in assortment that, after a few shiftings to larger pots, will soon become fine specimens that will be a delight. Each 35 cents. 3 for $1.00.

WONDERFUL GIANT LEMON PONDEROSA

J. Henby, Berwick, Pa., writes: "One you shipped me two years ago is now 24 inches high * * * It has beautiful foliage * * * one lemon measuring 12½ inches around."

This wonderful Lemon has created a great sensation, and is a true everbearing variety that you can grow in a pot or tub in the home and one that will prove to be a decided ornament, as well as bear fruit, such as you have probably never seen or heard tell of. On a plant 6 ft. high, no less than 89 of these wonderful Lemons were growing at one time. These trees are wonderful sights to see. The tree blooms and at the same time has fruit in all stages of development from the size of a pea, up to the ripe fruit. Fruits have been taken from these trees weighing over 4 pounds. It is one of the juicest of all Lemons, makes delicious lemonade, and is fine for pies and other culinary uses. It is not uncommon to make 12 lemon pies from one Lemon. No budding or grafting is necessary. It fruits when quite small and makes a lovely house plant. Everybody can grow their own Lemons. It should fruit freely the second year. Young Plants 35 cents, or 3 for $1.00.

WONDERFUL NEW RED-LEAVED BARBERRY

It is only once in a lifetime that a really worthwhile novelty in hardy shrubs is introduced, but we surely have it in this gorgeous plant. The foliage of the new Red-Leaved Barberry, particularly when planted to a full sunny exposure, is a rich, lustrous bronzy-red, similar in coloring to the Red-Leaved Japanese Maples. The high coloring of this plant is unequalled by that of any other shrub. It's richly colored foliage, with the green of other plants for a background, stands it out in bold relief. It will provide a wonderful addition to any massed shrubbery planting, it will add a brilliant splash of color in the hardy border, and is excellent for individual planting.

Except in its color it is similar to the green Barberry, but the rich red of this new plant becomes even more brilliant as the summer advances, and in the fall changes to vivid orange, scarlet and red shades, followed of course by the brilliant scarlet berries that remain to add a touch to the winter landscape. Offered this year in one size only

Fargo's Flowers From Seed and How to Grow Them

Our Flower Seeds are produced under the best of conditions and with the most painstaking care. Positively, they are THE BEST SEEDS MONEY CAN BUY.

Some seeds are much easier to germinate than others. Growers will have failures as well as successes. Some classes of seeds are unreliable even in the hands of professionals. Others could hardly fail with any sort of treatment.

Tender seeds should not be planted outdoors before May and expected to grow; many, however, may be started in the house from Feb. to Apr. and transplanted out in May. Neither should the seed be planted like corn and expected to do well. Sow about twice in depth the thickness of the seed. Very fine seed can be sowed from a salt shaker and pressed down with a flat block or board.

Seeds started indoors should be sowed in cigar boxes or shallow pans, in good soil and covered with glass until the young plants appear, when one side of the glass should be raised for ventilation. Keep moist, but not soaked, so as to provide the needed moisture and yet not "damp off" the young plants.

Do not transplant until after the two seed leaves have been succeeded by the regular leaves.

Flat seeds such as Ricinis, Gourds, Wild Cucumber, Coboea, &c., should be planted edgewise the same as you plant Lima Beans. Planted flat they would have a tendency to rot.

By following out these few and simple suggestions you should have more than the average of success.

stable manure as a fertilizer alone. It's high potash content gives to your plants just the food element needed to make strong healthy stalks. Wonderful for roses and other plants requiring long strong stems. Destroys and controls insect pests, such as rose midge, root aphids, etc. Give your rose beds a summer mulch two inches deep and note the great benefit. F. & I. TOBACCO DUST

Why grow flowers to feed bugs? As soon as you see the aphids or green plant lice sucking the very life's blood from the tender young shoots of your Roses, and other plants, sprinkle them, and while wet, apply Tobacco Dust to the plants, and these pests are done. 10 lb. bag only $1.25.

GRASS SEED THAT INSURES A FINE LAWN

Other things are essential in beautifying the home surroundings, but the first and prime requisite is to have a fine velvety lawn. Flowers and Shrubbery in abundance may surround the home, but, without a well kept lawn, the picture is far from its best.

There is cheaper Grass Seed than ours, but cheaper only in first cost, and not in results. We don't and won't handle cheap Lawn Grass Seed. It would pay neither you nor us. The best is by far the cheapest.

HOW TO SOW GRASS SEED

You cannot sow too much, the more the better. It means quicker, surer, more lasting results. 1 qt. will sow 250 sq. ft. (25x10); 4 qts. 1000 sq. ft. and so on. The Spring and Early Summer months are ideal for sowing lawn grass seed, as are the days of October and November.

EVERGREEN LAWN GRASS SEED

Is the result of years of untiring study and experimenting, it has stood the test in every part of the United States and it will stand wear and tear, outliving the severest winter, retaining at all times its lustrous green color. We class this as the best general purpose lawn grass. Price: $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. (about one quart), 40c.

SHADED LAWN GRASS SEED

After much experimenting a mixture of seed has been found that will produce a perfect sward in the dense shade caused by trees, shrubbery, buildings, etc. Price $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 45c.

Shade causes sour soil and about every three years you should apply lime to sweeten up the soil. Use about one bushel to each 1,000 sq. ft.

SEASHORE LAWN GRASS SEED

A good lawn at the seashore is frequently a problem and this mixture is a result. It will produce a good lawn in 6 to 8 weeks if 3 to 4 inches of top soil is spread over the surface, seeded and well firmed down. If soil is very poor and no top soil to be had, white clover sown with the grass will help wonderfully. Price: $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 50c.

WHITE CLOVER

Used along with any grass seed insures a richer, greener, and more velvety lawn. 1 lb. \$1.50. $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., 50 cts.

HARDY ORNAMENTAL GRASSES

They can be used with telling effect, planted individually on the lawn, planted in masses, amongst shrubbery, and some of the lower growing sorts make acceptable borders for flower beds of Cannas, etc. We offer Fountain Grass, which grows about 4 feet high, bright green foliage, heads tinged bronze-purple; Variegated Ribbon Grass, large variegated foliage, grows to 12-15 inches high; Zebra Grass, marked with broad yellow bands across the leaves, grows 6 to 7 feet tall. Fountain and Ribbon Grasses 25 cents each. Zebra Grass 35 cents.
